

The University of Oxford Global Surgery Group 2020 Conference

Surgical Priorities in a Global Pandemic

Friday 18th September 14.00 pm -16.30pm. British Summer Time

(Bangkok 20.00-22.30; New Delhi, 18.00-20.30; Nairobi 16.00-18.30; Rio de Janeiro 10.00-12.30).

Agenda

Time (BST)	Topic	Speaker
14:00	Introduction and welcome
14:05	Maintaining life: anaesthetic and intensive care priorities in the Covid 19 pandemic	Dr. Hilary Edgcombe (Anaesthetist, University of Oxford)
14:25	Interview	Dr. Lalatiana Andrianmanarivo (Surgeon, former Minister of Health, Madagascar)
14:35	The impact of COVID-19 on sexual and reproductive health at a Global level	Dr. Anita Makins (Ob/Gyn, University of Oxford)
14:55	Break
15:05	Discovering the important research questions for global surgery during the pandemic and beyond	Dr. Shobi Nagraj (Clinical Research Fellow, University of Oxford)
15:25	Interview	Dr. Godfrey Sama Philipo (Global Surgery Researcher, MUHAS, Tanzania)
15:35	Prioritising resource allocation in COVID-19's potentially devastating aftermath	Dr. Anant Jani (Honorary Research Fellow, University of Oxford)
15:55	Interview	Dr. Marc Dubois (Former Executive Director, Médecins Sans Frontières-UK)
16:05	Panel Discussion with Speakers	Chaired by Prof. Ashok Handa
16:25	Final Remarks	